THE MANAGER'S ANNUAL REPORT.

Buchanan, M. D., F. Semple, D. Leet Wilson, Chas. F. Wells, John M. Kennedy. W. E. Schmertz, Geo. K. Stevenson, John

Dunlap, Jas. I. Buchanan, D. Herbert Hostetter and Colonel J. Collard, The managers state that the report was not issued at the end of the sixteenth year, March 31 last, on account of the absence of further delayed by the Johnstown calamity. The sixteenth year ended with an indebtedness of $220, and since then, owing to unto-ward circumstances, it has increased to $1,500. It is hoped that when manufacturers come to realise that the greater number of people who apply at the dispensary for relief are persons employed by them and that the relief afforded saves them much money they might be called upon to supply, the manufacturers aforementioned will their way clear to putting the institution on During the past year there were 10,042 calls at the dispensary for relief, 590 visits were made to the homes of patients too ill to prescribed for in the offices of the physicians, making in all 11,080 calls on their valuable time. The apothecary dispensed 11,831 prescriptions. The management states that such services cannot be computed in the coin of the realm. A tribute is paid the memory of Dr. David Hostetter and Wm. Thaw, whose death foots a total of eight of the original corporators who have passed from time to

A TOUGH TIME OF IT. The dispensary has had a rocky road to travel. Its building on Sixth avenue, which originally cost $52,000, had its walls cracked and was thrown out of plumb by excavation on adjoining property and was condemned by the Building Inspector and the management was compelled to take it down. A new building, costing $22,000, is being erected and it is expected to be ready for occupancy by November 1. The necessity for its erection and rent of another building meantime have forced the use of the endowment fund and the borrowing of money. It is desired to make the new dispensary, as far as possible, the center of the organized charities of the city, and with this object in view, a part of the building has been placed at the disposal of the Society for the Improvement of the Poor, which will be availed of by them on its completion. They also have a small lecture room, which may be used free of charge by charitable organizations for lectures, concerts and other entertainments for charitable purposes.

The last Legislature was asked for bread, and gave it by a large majority, but the Governor petrified the bequest in the un-favorable report of the State Board of Charities, which regarded the dispensary as a mere local chari-y, and only entitled to local support. While the management re-Governor's prerogative, it pevertheless hits him between the lug and the horn for discriminating against the dispen-sary, giving it a stone while hospitals, scope is no more general, were allowed

In this respect the dispensary has been singularly unfortunate. Its first application for State aid was curing the session of of 1876-'77, when though the Committee on Appropriations recommended the application, no bills of that character were finally acted upon. During the session of 1880-81, $15,000 were asked for, and the Appropria-tion Committee agreed to give it, pro-vided a like amount was raised here by private contributions for an endowment and. The amount was promptly raised, but the member in charge neglected to call up the bill for action at the proper time. In 1882-83 both Houses agreed to appropriate $10,000, but Governor Pattison vetoed the bill. Discouraged in this direction, the management propose I to get along without State help and by borrowing from the en-dowment fund were getting on fairly well until the accident to the Dispensary building entailed a cost of $22,000 and the last hope was dashed to the ground by Governor It is estimated that the work done has It is estimated that the work done has saved the community $320,000, and proved and best colorings in mural decorations. the right of the dispensary to exist, and the public is asked to contribute sufficient to pay running expenses and erect the build-ing and make the endowment fund whole.

The report of the general medical depart-ment shows 2,785 cases treated during the past year; that of the surgical department, 708 cases; eye and ear department, 423 cases; total number of operations on the eye, 58; diseases of the ear, 90; operaof cases and operations on eye and ear, 1,158; cases treated in the gynæcological department, 205; cases of skin diseases treated, 64; cases of diseases of nose and throat treated, 225; visits to the dispensary during the year, ending March 31, 1889, 10,482; cases treated during same period, 4,500; visits made to patients at their homes, 590, and office calls, 448, in the outdoor relief department; prescriptions issued by the apothecary, 11,831. LOOKED LIKE WAR.

As Italian's Big Gun Got Him in Serious Trouble. Louis Ciska, an Italian, under the influence of liquor, entered the little cigar store of Mrs. L. Duncan, on Washington street, yesterday afternoon and attacked her. He was ejected by a gentleman who gave his name as Frank Howe, and who happened to be in the store at the time. Ciska attempted to pull a revolver on Mr. Howe, but was prevented by bystanders, and went away vowing vengeance. Mr. Howe then reported the matter to Officer Mulvehill, who proceeded to the place just in time to find the Italian and Mrs. Duncan engaged in a fight. He arrested them both, and at Central station a large, loaded revolver was found on Ciska. Mr. Howe called at the station, and told his version of the story, and promised as a disinterested party to attend the hearing this morning.

ARMSTRONG RETURNS HOME.

He Exacts a Promise That He Shall be Allowed Liberty. William Armstrong, the coal operator o Lawrenceville, who became a victim to melancholia some years ago, and 18 months since was placed in a private medical hospital at Merchantville, N. J., by his family and who escaped some weeks ago, came call at the dispensary, and 448 cases were home with his brother, Frank, from Montreal, yesterday morning. About a month ago William borrowed enough money from one of the hospital physicians to purchase a ticket to Philadelphia and during the night following stole away from the nurse, and, by means of a rope made from a sheet, let himself down from a window, and subsequently went to Montreal, under the impression that he was escaping the consequence of some crime.

He got work on a Government building which is being erected, and then tele-graphed to a brother in Ireland for money. The brother telegraphed to another brother, Frank Armstrong, of this city, for a bill of particulars, and this led him to visit Montreal. William would not return until he had exacted a promise that he should not again be incarcerated. He is believed to be entirely cured. REAL ESTATE SAVINGS BANK, LIM., 401 Smithfield Street, cor. Fourth Avenue.
